

Questech Services Corporation Mission Statement

Provide the greatest value to our customers as measured against our worthy competitors.

This means that we may not always have the lowest selling price, but we must provide a winning overall combination of:

Quality

Do it right the first time

Delivery

Meet customer needs and adjust to meet emergency situations

Customer Service

Build a caring relationship

Make it easy to obtain quotations, order status and solve problems

Proactively share technical ideas for improvement

Price

Be competitive in the market place, but realize that maintaining the necessary quality, delivery and customer service will not always result in the lowest quoted price.
